HealthCare.gov is for people who do not have health coverage through a job, Medicare, Medicaid, Kentucky Children's Health Insurance Program also called KCHIP, or another source.

At HealthCare.gov, what you pay for insurance depends on your income and other factors – Over 8 in 10 people who apply are eligible for help paying for coverage. That means that if you qualify for help paying for coverage, the amount that you have to pay for your health plan may be the same as this year depending on the plan you select. So, don't miss out! Go to HealthCare.gov to find out!

This year, you may have more options of whom you choose as your health insurance carrier. Some Kentucky counties offer plans from Anthem AND Caresource.

Remember, you must enroll between November 1st and December 15th for 2020 coverage.

- If you enroll between November 1st and December 15th your plan will start January, 2020
- After December 15th you can only enroll in a 2020 health insurance plan if you experience an event that will allow you to enroll, like losing health care coverage or if your 2019 plan is no longer available.

See which health insurance carriers your county offers and apply online at HealthCare.gov. You can also find in person help by calling [insert local number here] or by visiting the Kentucky Health Benefit Exchange website at KHBE.ky.gov.
